

Talent Mobility Cost Savings Tool

Prioritizing people.
Optimizing efficiency.

A Talent Mobility program is sometimes seen by the business as a transactional function - the management of budget line items and fixed costs. It's almost inevitable then, that when there's a call to trim budgets, Mobility teams are tasked to "do less with less."

Fortunately, though, reducing Mobility program spend doesn't always have to equate to reductions in service. And that's especially important when your program's success is measured on the satisfaction of your mobile talent.

We'll help you navigate the competing mandates facing most Mobility programs: the need to preserve resources and the imperative to provide exceptional support for mobile employees. You can do both. It's a matter of evaluating your program and priorities and uncovering efficiencies and alternative approaches.

Graebel's Innovative Talent Mobility Cost Savings Tool

Understand your business needs and priorities.

No one wants to hear about cost control when the business needs to relocate a team. We'll help you prepare for that challenge by identifying opportunities for efficiencies and innovation.

Identify what matters most.

We'll be at your side during this exploration. We bring proven solutions related to policy development, operations, purchasing, supply chain and technology. You'll have an optimized plan covering your processes from beginning to end.

Grow your program purposefully.

Not only will you minimize Mobility's fiscal impact on the organization, you'll be able to deliver value by presenting your strategy for employee care with the data and proof points your internal stakeholders expect.

Our Talent Mobility Cost Savings Tool is a step-by-step, data-driven exercise to identify alternative approaches to many aspects of your Mobility program.

This process will help you take the steps needed to govern responsibly and communicate effectively with stakeholders. In a matter of weeks, you'll have a practical plan in hand, ready to share.
